

Occupational and Safety Cartoons

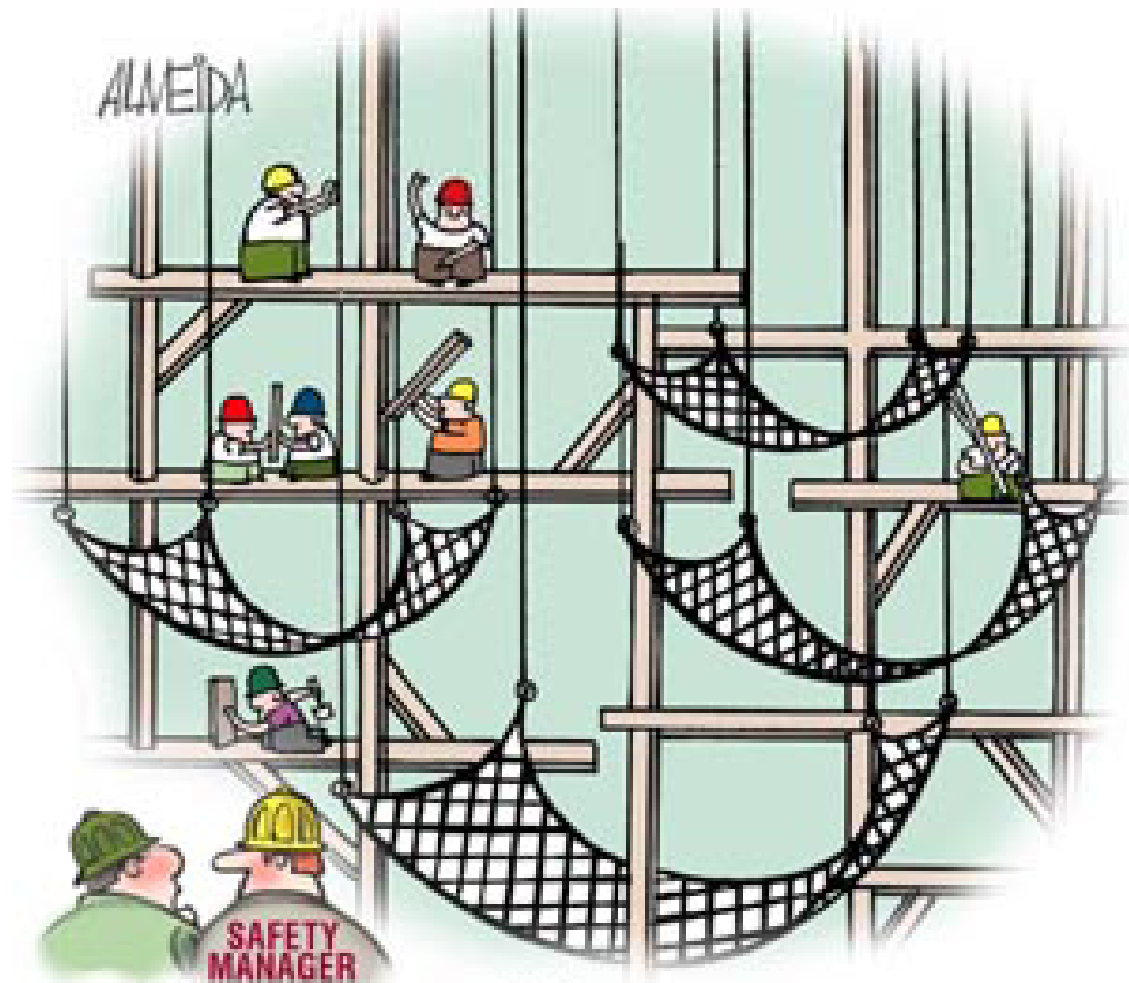

ALMEIDA

"This means something but I can't remember what!"

"How long did you say you worked for the Cirque de soleil?"

ALVEIDA

"He once worked on the set of Baywatch!"

"He doesn't mind the hard hat
but steel-toed boots are definitely out of the question!"

"She's gone too far this time!"

"He feels safer knowing which way the wind is blowing!"

"So how long have you been a safety manager?"

“Have you given any thoughts to my safety recommendations?”

"Don't you think it's about time
you got a babysitter?"

"He won't get off your back until he's sure you know everything about safety!"

"If ever there was a good reason to practice safety rules, this is it!"

"I don't care if bungee jumping is faster than the aerial lift. Around here it's against safety rules!"

"Do you mind?"

ALMEIDA

“Do you carry safety books for dummies?”

ALMEIDA

“Guess what you forgot to take with you this morning!”

“How many times do I have to tell you guys to use the aerial lift?”

ALMEIDA

“Are you sure you’ve been following the safety regulations at the nuclear plant?”

"They were right about the hole in the ozone!"

"No, you wake him up!"

"...regular pay increases, coffee breaks every 28 houses and an overall improvement in safety and occupational health!"

You’re wearing your seatbelt too high!”

"Who taught the new guy
how to use the Brad Nail Gun?"

ACME SAFETY EQUIPMENT

ALMEIDA

“Well gentlemen, any suggestions?”

"The other way you dummy!"

"With all these lectures and safety manuals, I'm about ready for a trip to where I can lie down and forget about all these rules and regulations!"

"I reckon everybody knows about this company's poor safety record by now !"

"What the heck is THAT??"

"Larry here is one of our most reliable men.
He's in charge of safety!"
